UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
SAN FRANCISCO DIVISION

ORACLE AMERICA, INC.

Case No. CV 10-03561 WHA

Plaintiff,

JOINT RESPONSE TO COURT'S REQUEST FOR CHART OF ELEMENTS IN ACCUSED PACKAGES

v.

GOOGLE INC.

Defendant.

Dept.: Courtroom 8, 19th Floor
Judge: Honorable William H. Alsup

1

2       The parties provide the following response to the Court's request for a chart showing the
3 number of classes, interfaces and methods in the accused API packages. RT 3357:2-3358:25.
4 The information in the chart attached as Exhibit A was generated by an automated analysis
5 conducted by Oracle of the Java 2 Standard Edition Version 5 compiled class libraries and the 6 Android Froyo compiled class libraries. While the number of API elements of various types can
7 be counted in slightly different ways using different forms of the parties' works, the parties agree
8 that the numbers in the chart fairly represent, for each of the 37 accused packages in Java 5.0 and
9 Android Froyo, the number of (1) classes and interfaces in the package; and (2) methods declared
10 within those classes and interfaces.

11

Other API elements—such as exceptions, fields, constructors, enums, errors, and annotation types—are not included, nor are methods declared within elements other than classes and interfaces. The chart therefore does not capture the presence in either Java or Android of these other elements or such methods.

12

In addition, only methods expressly declared in the classes and interfaces are included.
See RT 3358:11-21. As a result, the chart also does not reflect, for a given package, methods that are inherited by a class in that package from a class in a different package.
